88% of Head Start children were at or above national benchmarks

Rural Utah Child Development (RUCD) is a comprehensive child development program designed to meet the educational, emotional, social, and health needs of children. The RUCD team works well together to provide strong support and leadership, creating a consistent and quality learning environment. Children receive individualized lesson plans with developmentally appropriate learning experiences, and families are involved with their children's education while they receive assistance with personal goals, parenting information, and leadership through parent committees and Policy Council

“Parents are the child’s first teacher”

RUCD encourages parents to be the child's primary educator. Parent and family engagement is a collaborative and strengths-based process through which early childhood teachers, families, and children build positive and goal-oriented relationships. RUCD introduced Ready Rosie curriculum to promote children’s learning and support parent engagement.
